

New Delhi, Saturday, February 8, 2014

Kalyani Group to intensify its focus on defence business

Kalyani Group chairman Baba N Kalyani and Executive Director, Amit Kalyani unveil indigenous 155mm/52 Cal Howitzer Gun - A complete indigenous manufactured solution at the Defence Expo on Friday

PBD BUREAU

NEW DELHI, FEB 7

THE Pune based engineering & technology focused Kalyani Group is intensifying its efforts in addressing the requirements of Indian defence sector and it plans to intensify its focus on defence business.

Kalyani Group has aggressively scaled up its role during the last two decades in strategic sectors of defence, aerospace and nuclear businesses. It is now taking a giant leap forward in significantly contributing towards indigenisation efforts of the Indian defence sector.

The Kalyani Group is proud to announce that it has reached an important milestone. At the Def-expo 14 it has showcased Bharat-52 and Garuda-105, two state-of-the-art artillery systems completely manufactured in India. The other systems/equipments on display include 130-155 Fully upgraded Gun system.

Participating in the Defexpo 2014, Baba N Kalyani, Chairman of Kalyani Group stated

"Kalyani Group is determined to scale up its contribution to the armed forces and play a vital role in India's defence sector by providing a range of technology-intensive state of the art weapon systems. We are encouraged by Government of India's clear intent to ramp up domestic defence capabilities and as a Group, our focus would be to become a major player in the land systems segment."

The Group has also signed an agreement with SAAB of Sweden to provide Air Defence Solutions.